

Fisher

Long ago, the fisher disappeared from Pennsylvania. Like the otter, fishers were brought from other states by the Game Commission and live here once more. The fisher is a predator. It hunts animals like squirrels and even porcupines, but does not fish. It is an expert tree climber.