

Robin

This robin nest has four light blue eggs in it. Robins are seen on lawns looking for worms. In late summer robins travel, or migrate south to warmer places where it is easier to find food in winter. Robins return each spring to their same nesting sites.