DEITERICH PROMOTED TO GAME COMMISSION SUPERVISOR

Pennsylvania Wildlife Conservation Officer Rick Deiterich, of Bloomsburg, was recently promoted to the position of Conservation Administration Supervisor for the Pennsylvania Game Commission's Northeast Region.

Deiterich was a graduate of the 26th class of Wildlife Conservation Officers from the Game Commission Ross Leffler School of Conservation in 2002. Upon graduation, Deiterich was assigned to southern Lycoming County as a district Wildlife Conservation Officer. Deiterich also served as Wildlife Conservation Officer in Cumberland, Northumberland, Montour, and Columbia Counties.

The Northeast Region Conservation Administration Supervisor is responsible for the administration of the region land acquisition program, supervision of dispatchers, and coordination of agency professionals in administering a land leasing program of private landowners for public hunting purposes. Deiterich directly supervises seven Wildlife Conservation Officers, five regional dispatchers, and one maintenance worker.

Officer Deiterich is a 1981 graduate of Central Columbia High School in Bloomsburg. He graduated from Williamsport Area Community College and Bloomsburg University, receiving a degree in accounting, and was previously employed by Geisinger and Bloomsburg Hospitals. Deiterich is a graduate of the Pennsylvania Municipal Police Officer's Act 120 program and served as a full-time police officer at Bloomsburg University and as a part-time police officer in Berwick Borough.

Officer Deiterich is an active member of Washington Lodge #265 Free and Accepted Masons in Bloomsburg, and is a past master of the lodge.

Deiterich resides in Bloomsburg with his wife Crystal. They have two children, daughter Sarah Golla and son Kyle Deiterich, and four grandchildren, Grace, Addison, Carson and Hannah.

"Officer Deiterich performed his duties as a district Wildlife Conservation Officer with pride and professionalism," said Game Commission Northeast Region Director Daniel Figured. "I am confident he will do an outstanding job in his new position of Conservation Administration Supervisor."
