FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

GAME COMMISSION SHOOTING RANGE CLOSED FOR UPGRADES

The Pennsylvania Game Commission shooting range located in Laughlintown on State Game Lands 42 in Ligonier Township, Westmoreland County will be temporarily closed for road maintenance beginning on Monday, May 9 until the end of May pending weather. The road maintenance project will involve daylighting and widening the existing access road, it will address poor drainage areas, repair the base, and will resurface the entire 1,970 linear feet of road that begins off of Kissell Springs Road. Two existing parking areas will also be improved as part of this project.

“This road maintenance project will significantly increase and improve the access to the Laughlintown range,” said Regional Director Jason Farabaugh. “The result will be a more positive experience for all shooters that choose to use the range facilities and also anyone who accesses SGL 42 from this location for hunting purposes.”

An interactive map of all seasonal roads with their current status is also located on the Pennsylvania Game Commission’s website at www.pgc.pa.gov under the STATE GAME LANDS section and MAPS AND MORE link at the bottom of the homepage or at the following link: Seasonal Roads \(arcgis.com\))
