The Pennsylvania Game Commission is partnering with Raised At Full Draw (RAFD) to offer three youth bowhunting camps this summer.

- Milroy, Pennsylvania: June 20-23, 2024
- Felton, Pennsylvania: July 11-14, 2024
- Fort Littleton, Pennsylvania: August 1-4, 2024

Designed for archers of any skill level from beginner to expert aged 11-17, the hands-on camps will teach shot placement and angles, tree stand setup and safety, hunting from a ground blind, judging distance, blood/game tracking, calling, first aid, outdoor survival, orienteering, and more.

RAFD can provide all necessary equipment, and campers have the opportunity to leave with their bowhunter education certificate.
